CAPITALISTS HELD UP.

Sixty prominent capitalists and members of stock exchange houses of New York and Boston were held up by Canadian customs officers at Toronto, Ont., Saturday, when they crossed the Canadian line. The travellers were passengers on a special train on their way to inspect silver mining properties in Cobalt. After a casual inspection the customs officers at Niagara Falls declared that the amount of wines and cigars on board was excessive, and demanded $1,500 duty. In spite of assurances that everything on board was for the private consumption of this party, they would not allow the special to proceed until the commissary car had been officially sealed and all drinkables and smoking materials locked up. The capitalists have appealed to the government. The party went on to Toronto.

THE GAME LAWS.

L. T. Christian, Secretary of the Game Protective Association of Virginia, in his annual warning, just issued from Richmond, tells hunters what birds and game they can hunt and when they can hunt them. Always protected by the laws of Virginia are the mocking bird, thrush, woodpecker, yellow hammer, red bird, meadow lark, night hawk, whippoorwill, gull, crane, vulture and all other non-game birds and their nests. It is unlawful to trap water fowl, to hunt them or muskrats with lights; to use a gun larger than 8-bore to shoot any protected game earlier than one-half hour before sunrise or later than one-half hour after sunset, or to shoot any game on Sunday. It is also unlawful to buy or sell robbins, grouse, pheasants, quail, partridge or woodcock at any time.

The open seasons as announced in the warning are as follows: From November 1st to February 1st, turkeys, pheasants, grouse, quail, partridge and woodcock; from October 15th to May 1st, waterfowl; from August 1st to January 1st, summer ducks; from July 20th to January 1st, rails, mudhens, willets and other surf birds; from February 15th to April 1st, robbins, and from November 1st to February 1st, rabbits. The supervisors have the authority to shorten or close the season and a warden can arrest without a warrant when he sees a violation.

For interfering with a warden the penalty is from $5 to $50.

A non-resident can secure a license for $10 and carry game out of the State, exposed to view, but cannot freight or express any.

Mr. Christian in his circular says: The propagation of wild imported game birds, quail and pheasants in this state is becoming quite general. There are many plants in Virginia which raise from 10 to 100 pairs of these rare varieties, which are generally used for stocking and should be protected. The quantities of Chinese pheasants in Oregon and Washington, raised from a few birds brought to those states by a citizen a few years ago, illustrates what can be done. The same results can be had in Virginia, as these birds are easily raised, and are profitable as well as pleasant pass-time. The legislature last winter wisely passed an act making it unlawful to buy or sell pheasants, grouse, quail or partridges, wood-cock and robins, therefore, the market hunter must find a vocation other than that of a common destroyer of birds. The economic value of these birds to agriculturists is becoming recognized. Every state in the union, with a few exceptions, prohibits their being bought or sold. All law-abiding citizens should see that this law is enforced, and remember that the seller is as guilty as the buyer. The evil of the excessive bag should be discouraged. The practice of killing birds as long as they can be found should be classed as an offense against common decency.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are for weak back, backache, rheumatic pains, inflammation of the bladder and all other annoyances due to weak kidneys. They are sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

For a Sprained Ankle.

A sprained ankle may be cured in about one-third the time usually required, by applying Chamberlain's Liniment freely, and giving it absolute rest. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

RESTAURANT HIGH UP.

What is probably the highest restaurant in the world has been opened at the Eismeer station of the Jungfrau railway in Switzerland. It is 10,000 feet above sea level, close to the summit of the mountain. The food is not cooked by means of ordinary fuel, but by electricity generated by the Lutschine waterfall, deep down in the valley below. With an expenditure of thirty kilowatts of electrical energy it is possible to prepare a five course dinner for a party of 100 persons in a short time. The guests are accomodated in a large hall hewn out of the solid rock and heated by electricity. The view from the huge windows comprises mountain scenery which for grandeur perhaps has no equal in the world.

Good for Biliousness.

"I took two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tables last night, and I felt fifty per cent. better than I have for weeks, says J. J. Firestone of Allegan, Mich. 'They are certainly a fine article for biliousness.'" For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson. Samples free.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, SEPT. 7, 1908.

WHEN there was recently so much talk about making public the names of the big concerns which have for years and are again expected to make large contributions to help buy the presidential election for the the republican party many of these corporations became alarmed. Then some of the republican leaders suggested another plan and besought them to put their plants in full operation and tell their employees that work would continue till election day and afterwards if Taft were elected. As business is dull and the future outlook too uncertain the operators balked at this but devised a scheme which was to let their mills remain closed for the present but to promise the workmen to start them the day after Taft is elected. To this end the "prosperity placard" announcing that "on the day after the election of Taft and Sherman this factory will start up in full force" has been posted upon a large number of mills and factories throughout the north, east and west, but sensible working men quickly saw through the scheme and at the polls next November will resent this effort to bribe and blackmail them. Business would be just as good the day after Bryan and Kern should be elected as the day after Taft and Sherman should be elected. Mr. Kern has called the attention of Mr. Parry, late president of the National Association of Manufacturers, to the placards, and Mr. Parry has repudiated them. If the republican managers have any sense they will suppress this method of trying to bribe or coerce the workingmen. Concerning this "prosperity placard" and with the approval of Mr. Bryan, P. C. Burns, president of the American Electric Telephone Company, and who is chief of the bureau of manufacturers, at national headquarters in Chicago, has given out this letter, which he has written in reply to a communication from the New York Leather Belting Company:

Gentlemen—We have your favor of the 23rd inst., asking us to post in our factory the following sign:

Believing that the election of Taft and Sherman means a safe and progressive business administration, the day following we shall start this plant on "full time" and keep going.

We will not do this for several reasons principally these:

We do not believe it good policy for a business firm to send out campaign literature, and we do not wish to post in our factory a statement which would be coercing our employes.

Such statement on a poster would not be the truth.

We cannot afford to carry out the promise any better after election than was possible in any period of the past year.

Business has been about as poor as possible for upwards of a year and a half.

Which party have you to blame for it?

Your cry for a business administration has got to be a "chestnut."

Every man is a business man.

Your ideal business men are no doubt those who can by questionable methods get a franchise or some special privilege from the government, start the printing presses on the largest amount of watered stock and bonds and sell them to the "widows and orphans," and then try and make the "abuses of today become the vested rights of tomorrow."

Your system of intimidation to the voter (your poster) has got the old system of stealing insurance and other moneys to carry the election "beat a mile." Your cry of disaster every four years if a certain ticket be not elected is doing great injury to the country. Can't we ever have a change of administration without the "interests" cry of disaster? If not, you had better have Van Cleave and the National Association of Manufacturer appoint our presidents. Failing in this, let us have a "monarchy." It is the only way you can be consistent.

THE only church nursery for babies in the United States was opened at Syracuse, N. Y., yesterday, when the Centenary M. E. Church, reconstructed during the summer, held its first service. There was a maid in charge, blocks, books of rhyme and a variety of toys. Rev. E. L. Waldorf, the pastor says:

Crying babies will raise voices without the usual effect at a service. The walls of the room will be sound-proof. Lullabies will be sung, and no one will be disturbed. Mothers may leave the children in a cozy crib or cuddled up on a couch and occupy rocking chairs just outside the double doors at the rear of the balcony. So long as the babies are quiet they may stay with their mothers.

Mr. Waldorf hopes by this new idea to have large congregations, but he will find that this like other devices to draw crowds to church will have but a short run.

NEARLY 2,000 Italians, from different parts of the United States, arrived in Philadelphia Friday to embark on the Italian line steamship Verona, which sailed from that city Saturday for Naples and Genoa. Five hundred of the big crowd came from Pennsylvania and the remainder from the west. This does not look like the Italian workmen had much faith of an immediate return of prosperity.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Sept. 7.

Picnics, river sports, ball games, motor cycle races, and tilting by riders of Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia, characterize the Labor Day celebrations at the capital. The Central Labor Union is holding a big outing at Bennings. It is estimated that 15,000 organized workmen and their families are in attendance upon the event. J. Enos Ray, speaker of the Maryland House of Representatives, is the principal speaker. The regatta of the Middle States Rowing Association is being held on the upper Potomac. Every amusement resort in the neighborhood of Washington is the scene of some sort of sport or celebration in honor of the day. All the government departments were closed and all the business houses shut at noon.

Although the amended rate law has been in force more than two years, the first real hard fight under its provisions will come up within a month, when the commission will be compelled to answer to the question, "How is the reasonableness of a rate to be tested?" which has been put fair and square before it in the complaints made by the Railroad Commissions of Texas and Alabama. Both bodies submitted figures showing, as they assert, that the railroads are wofully overcapitalized, and have also submitted figures showing what they believe to be the real value.

The many expert aeronauts who are attending the aeroplane tests on government supervision at Fort Myer, Va., and who constitute a sort of informal congress on flying machines, are discussing the advisability of getting laws passed to prevent inexperienced persons from attempting to fly.

An agent sent by the Department of Agriculture to Juniata, Idaho, to investigate the present status of the so-called Alaska wheat, said to yield over 200 bushels per acre, has made a report stating the whole thing to be a fake.

The petition of the Bucks Stove and Range Company, of which Mr. Van Cleave, of St. Louis, president of the Manufacturers' Association, is president, requiring Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison, respectively president, vice-president and secretary of the American Federation of Labor, to show cause why they should not be adjudged guilty of contempt, will come up before Judge Gould, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, on Wednesday next. Among the counsel for Mr. Gompers and his associates will be Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York. The labor men are charged with acting in contempt of the orders of Judge Gould of last December prohibiting them from continuing the Bucks Stove and Range Company on the published "We-Don't-Patronize" list of the American Federation of Labor, and from in any way boycotting or encouraging a boycott against the company, which order subsequently became a decree of the court through the action of Chief Justice Clabaugh and an appeal of which is now pending. It is claimed that they circulated copies of the American Federationist after the date of Judge Gould's order, containing the "We-Don't-Patronize" list, and they also are charged with circulating the proceedings of the last convention of the American Federation of Labor, which indorsed the boycott in question.

The President is expected back from Oyster Bay on the 22nd or 23d instant.

Virginia News.

John H. Smyth, president of the negro reformatory near Richmond, and minister to Liberia under President Cleveland, died on Saturday.

The Court of Appeals at Staunton had an extra session Saturday at which the case of Milton's administratrix vs. the Norfolk and Western Railway was argued and submitted.

Bruce W. Stringfellow died at his home near Culpeper, Friday afternoon, aged 75 years. He was one of the most prosperous farmers of that section of the state.

Mrs. Marshall, of Bluemont, Loudoun county, wife of John R. Marshall, died at her home Friday night, aged 42 years. She was, prior to her marriage, a Miss La Rue, of Washington.

J. W. Mahew, a young man, who was employed at one of the Lynchburg shoe factories, threw himself in front of a freight train last night at Lawyers. His body was badly mangled by the engine. No cause has yet been learned for the act.

Before a large congregation in St. Paul's Church, Norfolk, Beverly D. Tucker, jr., was ordained to the diaconate in the Episcopal Church yesterday, Bishop Beverly D. Tucker, of the Diocese of Southern Virginia, and his father officiating. Rev. Pembroke W. Reed, of Buffalo, N. Y., an old schoolmate of the candidate, and Rev. James M. Owens, rector of the church, assisted in the ceremony.

FLED FROM WRATH.

Hurriedly leaving apartments of magnificence, in which he is accused of practicing shocking iniquities, the Rev. Leonard W. Snyder, said to hail from Ohio, and representing himself as "the boys' minister of America," fled from Richmond to Norfolk Saturday night to escape the vengeance of the parents of several youths and in an effort to evade the local police and detectives who are hot upon his trail. One of the most luxurious apartments in a local hostelry was the meeting place in which Dr. Snyder is charged with having daily gathered fifteen or twenty boys of old Virginia families, ostensibly to instruct them in the Gospel. Good things to eat were served, and soft drinks, and at night downy couches for one and sometimes for two of the lads to sleep upon.

Doubt as to the preacher's motives came, following a trip which he took with one of the boys concerned. The youngster came home with a strange story to tell. Meantime, suspicion of a hotel detective was aroused, who worked up the case against Snyder, assisted by a local detective sergeant. Several of the alleged victims, after learning that the affair had become public property, have promised to testify against Dr. Snyder. J. P. Lee, father of one the boys who were with Snyder, stated emphatically that he would shoot the preacher on sight.

Dr. Snyder was arrested at the Ocean View Hotel, Norfolk, by Police Captain Ford, yesterday. He says his arrest is the result of spite. He has numerous letters of recommendation showing that he has worked among boys in various parts of the country. He has been in the United States about nine years, living at Norway, Ohio. The prisoner was taken back to Richmond yesterday.

The London Globe's Rome correspondent is authority for the statement that during Archbishop Farley's recent stay in Rome the pope frequently hinted to the American prelate that he would be the next recipient of the cardinal's hat.

News of the Day.

Statistics compiled by the Journal of the American Medical Association show that 5,623 persons were hurt or killed in celebration of the last Fourth of July.

John L. Moers and John Coggan, prominent merchants of Galveston, Tex., were drowned last night when the skiff in which they were riding in the bay, near Galveston, was capsized.

Albert Harrison, the young man who last Wednesday afternoon created a panic on the London Stock Exchange by firing three shots from a revolver, has been committed to an asylum.

So general is the practice of selling moonshine whisky in some parts of the Kentucky mountains that many young girls sell it along the public road on their way to school.

Although imprisonment for debt has been nominally abolished, in England, 9,235 people were sent to jail last year for not paying when ordered to do so by the judge. All these prisoners were supposed to have means to pay, and to have refused to satisfy their creditors after an order of the court had been made.

The police of Baltimore city and Anne Arundel county, Md., are endeavoring to locate Thomas Gangeton, colored, who is wanted on the charge of causing the death of Mary Wright, colored, aged 54 years, of Maynards, who died on Saturday afternoon. Both of them were employed on the farm of Mr. George F. Jenkins, upon whose place the assault was alleged to have taken place on last Wednesday night.

Governor Fort won another victory over the Atlantic City liquor sellers yesterday and the lock which he put down on the lid last week held throughout the day despite various individual attempts to pry it up. Proprietors of several downtown saloons of the smaller class took chances in furnishing drinks to their regular and well known customers. Special policemen watched a half dozen such places but could not obtain admittance to secure evidence.

While the majority of the good citizens of Baltimore rested from their labors yesterday, the police were at work making Sunday raids on saloons, and as the result arrests were made in nearly every one of the eight police districts of the city. One hotel was raided, and in another instance the officer had to resort to strategy to gain an entrance to the saloon by climbing upon the roof of an adjoining house. The usual quota of witnesses was secured, and a number of saloonkeepers were held for the action of the grand jury on charges of selling liquor on Sunday.

Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, former congressman and lawyer, and his wife are reunited after a seperation of 27 years. Since the separation Mrs. Sickles had lived in Madrid, Spain, her native city. Mrs. Sickles, accompanied by her only son, Stanton Sickles, arrived in New York on August 27, and the next day the son brought the general and his wife together. Whatever were the differences that have kept the general and his wife apart all these years they were seemingly settled at their first interview. Both now insist that there never were any differences but it is said they will continue to live apart. In Washington about two years before the civil war Mr. Sickles shot and killed Francis Barton Key, a writer, after trailing and watching his victim pay covert attentions to his first wife. Sickles' defense was emotional insanity and he was acquitted.

LABOR LEADER ARRESTED.

William H. Mullen, for years a prominent labor leader and the man who came within a few votes of being nominated for Congress by the democrats of the Richmond district, was arrested in Richmond Saturday for non-support of his wife. Mullen, it is said, left his family some years ago and had just returned to his native city. He was bailed.

REGATTA NEAR GEORGETOWN.

Quite a number of people left here today to be present at the regatta which took place in Georgetown channel today. The speed boat Mae, with Mr. Bruce Emerson in command, was the stake boat for the occasion. The Augusta, Admiral Calmes, took a party of friends to witness the races.

The following was the result:

First race, association senior singles—Won by S. F. Gordon, West Philadelphia.

Second race, four-oared gig—Won by Pennsylvania Barge Company, of Philadelphia.

Third race, junior singles—Won by Geo. W. Allison, West Philadelphia Boat Club.

Fourth race, senior four-oared shell—Won by Vesper Boat Club, of Philadelphia.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Joel F. Baker and Mrs. Sylva Hernice went for a drive into the country near Wabash, Ind., Saturday night, it being the purpose of the woman to discard Baker and leave the city yesterday for the west, where she expected to be married. Yesterday morning a traveling man went to the livery barn where Baker hired the horse and buggy and saw a rig standing near the barn, with two occupants, apparently asleep. When the stable keeper was aroused and threw back the lap robe the woman was sitting with the man's arm around her and both were dead. An examination showed that Mrs. Hernice had been shot five times; Baker was killed by a shot in the left temple. Baker had killed Mrs. Hernice between 12 and 1 o'clock, had evidently prayed over her bloody form, and had then placed her in the buggy, turned the head of the horse toward the city, and ended his own life as he clasped the body of the woman in his arms. Mrs. Hernice's body was cold and Baker's quite warm when they were found.

Forest fires after burning for three days enveloped several towns near Duluth Saturday, rendered thousands of people homeless and destroyed millions of dollars' worth of property. Walls of flame sweep across the country like great waves and engulfed the towns. A rush of inhabitants to escape jammed the roads.

Today's Telegraphic News

Forest Fires.

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 7.—With Louis, Itasca and Carleton counties in Minnesota, and Douglass county, Wisconsin, laid waste, the forest fires which have raged near here for 36 hours, are under control today and further destruction of property is not expected unless the wind takes an unfavorable shift. Prompt action was taken today following the issuance of Gov. Johnson's proclamation last night to relieve the suffering of the 14,000 people rendered homeless by the fire. A city of tents is springing up on the outskirts of the town of Hibbing and in them the thousands of refugees from the devastated towns are finding shelter. Martial law has been declared in the burned district. Before the flames had been checked a property loss of $4,000,000 had been caused. Chisholm, sixty miles north of Duluth, sustained the greatest loss, about $2,000,000. Today only blackened ruins, smoking piles of charred wood and little gray heaps of ashes comprise what on Saturday was the most flourishing town on the Mesaba range. Hartley, Shehando and Pillsbury are believed to have been destroyed.

When the fire got beyond control Saturday, it swept down on Chisholm almost without warning and the place was quickly destroyed. Hibbing was saved by desperate fire fighting and the sudden subsidence of the wind. When Governor Johnson called out a company of militia late Saturday night, it was on information that ghouls were at work among the ruins of Chisholm. This later proved untrue, but the governor will keep the troops on the scene until order is restored. The disaster is the greatest that has ever visited the Mesaba range. Special trains bearing provisions and clothing for the refugees are running into Hibbing today, and it is believed that, by nightfall, most of the suffering will be relieved.

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 7.—Three men and one woman are believed to have perished in the forest fires outside of Hibbing. They are three lumbermen and the wife of one of them. They were driven into town late yesterday by the flames, but later returned into the fire district to get their camp outfits. They have not been seen since.

At 9 a. m. today $9,000 had been raised here for the sufferers at Chisholm and the subscriptions were coming in rapidly.

Advices today from the ruins of Chisholm state that the national guardsmen there today arrested 80 men found tampering with cash registers in the ruins. The moving of practically the whole population of Chisholm to Hibbing was accomplished without accident.

Mr. Bryan in Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—William Jennings Bryan is the guest of the Chicago Federation of Labor today. On his arrival this morning he was met by a committee of the central body and escorted to his hotel.

Mr. Bryan is especially jubilant over the announcement by Judge Taft that he will make a speaking tour. Today he commented sarcastically on the "change of heart" of the republican managers, and intimated that in his opinion, the "the damage has already been done" and the speaking trip will not swing disgruntled republicans into line.

National Chairman Mack went over the eastern situation with Mr. Bryan. It was explained that State Chairman Connors and Leader Murphy of Tammany Hall have decided to lay aside their personal preferences and will name any man for governor that Mr. Bryan will suggest but the latter declined to interfere in State politics.

At noon Mr. Bryan reviewed the big Labor Day parade from the balcony of the hotel. As soon as the parade was over Mr. Bryan entered an automobile and was whisked to the Iroquois Club, where he was the guest at the luncheon of the state committee. He scored the committee for its failure to place legislative tickets in the field in every district. As a result of this negligence a republican successor to Senator Hopkins is assured. This afternoon Mr. Bryan is addressing a big Labor Day picnic and tonight, as the guest of the International Association of Electrical Workers, he will speak again to Labor at Brand's Hall. There are thirty national committeemen as well as half a hundred state chairmen and secretaries here to participate in the conferences of today and tomorrow. At these conferences there will be outlined plans for pushing the state fights and the general conduct of the campaign will be discussed.

New York Politics.

New York, Sept. 7.—More than ever the question of whether or not Governor Hughes shall be renominated is today a national issue. It has passed the narrow limits of a state fight and has become a factor in the larger contest throughout the country. This has been brought more directly home to the state leaders who have been opposing Hughes by the reception accorded the governor at Youngstown last Saturday where he opened the Ohio campaign. It is not only in Ohio that the sympathy of the people are with Hughes in this emergency. It is an accurate statement of the case to say that President Roosevelt's main reason for interfering in the selection of the New York gubernatorial candidate was his information from all parts of the country that failure of the republicans in this state to endorse Hughes by naming him for another term would cause such distrust of the party in other states that many votes would be lost.

The plain people of Ohio, Indiana, Iowa and Nebraska, it is said, would regard his defeat as a serious reflection upon the integrity of the republican party managers here. President Roosevelt, Judge Taft and National Chairman Hitchcock are so impressed with this that every possible influence is being brought to bear to break up the combination against Hughes. It is expected that the fight will be carried to the floor of the convention. In some way that has not yet been disclosed it is anticipated that the president will bring to the attention of the delegates the national importance of the question before them. Elihu Root, Secretary of State, will be temporary chairman of the convention and as such will make the key note speech. It would not be at all surprising if he should be made the medium of conveying this message and his remarks will be listened to with more than ordinary interest for this reason.

William J. Bryan left Fairview, Neb., yesterday for Chicago to begin a three-weeks campaign tour. He spoke at Chicago today.

Abdul Aziz.

Tangier, Sept. 7.—Whatever hope Abdul Aziz may have had of finally defeating Mulai Hafid, the newly proclaimed sultan, and regaining the throne, vanished today on the receipt of news from the scene of the latest fighting, near Morrocco City, that Kaid Mtougi and his army of 2,000 are surrounded by Mulai's Hafid's forces, with no chance of escape. Mtougi is seeking terms of surrender but Mulai is bent on a war of extermination in revenge for the assassination of Kaid Anflous, one of his chief supporters. Mtougi is the only general of Abdul's once formidable army who is still in the field and with his defeat the last vestige of the former sultan's military power has disappeared. Realizing the hopeless of continuing the struggle, Abdul has released his followers from further allegiance to him. "Let those who desire to follow Mulai Hafid from now on, do so," he announced to his men. The final defeat of Mtougi was accomplished by El Glaoui, whose forces were routed by Abdul's army last week.

Will Marry Anyway.

Turin, Sept. 7.—Count Turin, the elder brother of the duke of the Abruzzi, was defeated again today in his effort to win the approval of Queen Margherita of the marriage of the duke to Miss Catherine Elkins his, American fiance. He visited the queen and pleaded with her to give her consent to the marriage but the queen vehemently repeated her refusal. The continued hostile attitude of the queen, it was stated by a member of the count's family, would have no effect on the wedding plans of the duke, whose marriage to Miss Elkins will probably take place in the fall. The duke's family, which tried to discourage him at the outset of his love affair with Miss Elkins, has accepted his determination gracefully. The count, especially, has been active in trying to overcome the royal opposition to the match, but has been defeated at every turn.

The Boston Murder.

Boston, Sept. 7.—New clews which lead the police to believe Chester S. Jordan had accomplice in the killing of his wife have set the officers at work on the case today with increased vigor. It is said new facts discovered show that the crime was carefully planned and deliberately carried out and that Jordan could not have been the only one concerned. Tomorrow the dismembered body of Mrs. Jordan will be buried at Maldan. Jordan's relatives will have charge of the funeral. J. E. Livermore, millionaire cotton broker, brother-in-law of Jordan, who has been here since the discovery of the murder, left on his steam yacht. Before going he had a final talk with Jordan. Livermore's money, it is said, is to be freely spent in defending Jordan.

The King's Absence.

London, Sept. 7.—Despite reported assertions from court circles that King Edward was wholly indifferent to the protests of the Protestant alliance against the king's proposed reception in honor of Cardinal Vincent Vannutelli, the papal legate to the Eucharistic congress, it was announced today that the king had found it impossible to be in London during the week of the congress. The decision of the king to absent himself is universally interpreted as an effort to escape the embarrassing situation which the protest forced.

When the protest from the Protestants was first made, the king announced that his welcome to the papal legate would in no wise be a violation of his oath as king, which forbids him from officially recognizing Catholicism.

The Algeciras Treaty.

Paris, Sept. 7.—It was announced at the foreign office today that a note had been received from Spain that Spain had agreed to the Moroccan entente as outlined in the French draft. The joint acts of the two mandatories of the Algeciras treaty will be presented to the signatories at any early date. The only point of difference between France and Spain was on how far to go in demanding financial pledges from Mulai Hafid. Spain was afraid that France would saddle too great a burden on the new sultan. It is understood that only the legitimate debts contracted by Abdul are to be assumed by his successor.

Aerial Stowaway.

San Jose, Cal., Sept. 7.—Fred Biaggi, aged, 18, the first aerial stowaway on record has returned unhurt from his trip in the balloon of W. I. Warring a parachute performer. Biaggi made the trip on a bet. Just as the balloon cut loose he ran forward and jumped into the rigging under the mouth of the bag. The balloon rose to a height estimated at 6,000 feet. When he was 200 feet above the ground Warring cut loose and the balloon sailed away with its passenger, but Biaggi made the descent in safety.

Battle Expected.

Colomb-Beshar, Sept. 7.—The arrival of the French reinforcing column under General Allix is to be followed by a joint movement against the Berber Tribes that now surround the French troops at Budenib. While the French are outnumbered more than ten to one, their equipment is such that the Arabs will be no match for them. General Baillou intends to clear the surrounding country of the Arab warriors to do the job so thoroughly that the French posts will not be menaced for a long time to come.

Stormy Session.

London, Sept. 7.—Bitterly assailing Rev. E. J. Hanna and Archbishop Riordan of San Francisco diocese, Cardinal Martellini threw a bomb into today's session of the congregational of the propaganda which is preliminary to the Eucharistic Congress Wednesday. The cardinal said that the efforts to obtain Hanna's appointment were undignified in the extreme and pointed out instances of alleged undue pressure exercised by Archbishop Riordan to secure Hanna's selection. The charges made by Martinelli greatly agitated the session and at times the discussion became stormy and acrimonious. The cardinal carried his points however, and the congregation finally decided to instruct Mgr. Falconio, apostolic delegates at Washington, to send in the names of a new set of candidates. The opposition to Hanna had its inception in the charge that he is too modernistic in his views. It is understood that Martenelli was voicing the pope's views in his attack on Hanna and Riordan. The congregation appointed Auxiliary Bishop Muldoon of the Chicago diocese to be bishop of the Rockford diocese notwithstanding the fact that many opponents sent in accusations against his character and reputation.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Monsignor Averea, the present apostolic delegates to Cuba, will be appointed to succeed Monsignor Falconio as apostolic delegate to Washington.

John Towns, a negro, accused of attempting to assault Mrs. Joseph Wheeler, wife of a leading planter, was taken from deputy sheriffs by a mob at Damascus, Ga., and lynched on Saturday.

Burglars went in an automobile and looted the summer home of J. K. Robinson, millionaire president of the Diamond Match Company, near Bridgeport, Ct.

Crowds of socialists and unemployed men attempted to forcibly invade the cathedral in Glasgow, yesterday, and several of the rioters were hurt in an encounter with the police.

Ex-Attorney General Philander C. Knox, of Pittsburg, and his wife were slightly injured, and their son seriously hurt in an automobile collision yesterday at Geneva.

The Eucharistic Congress in London, on Wednesday, is to be one of the most imposing demonstrations of modern times of the Roman Catholic religion. King Edward will not be in London during the session.

The Dutch government has issued an ultimatium to Venezuela, demanding the revocation before November 1 of the decree issued by President Castro, May 14 last, which resulted in the suppression of Curacao's trade.

In his final message to Congress the president is expected to recommend that the army be increased by the addition of 10 regiments of infantry, 5 regiments of cavalry and several companies of coast artillery making the increase from 60,000 to 100,000 men.

A patrol from the American fleet is searching for 85 stragglers who failed to board their ships at Melbourne when the fleet sailed Saturday. The battleships Maine and Alabama, advance guard of the American fleet, on a voyage around the world, arrived at Suez yesterday.

Dan O'Leary the famous pedestrian today stated in Cleveland, O, that he had received telegrams challenging him to meet John Hayes, the Marathon runner. Under the term challenge O'Leary is to walk 6 miles while Hays runs ten; The aged hiker accepted the challenge. O'Leary is in Cleveland on business.

After destroying the town of Chisholm, on the Mesaba Range, and burning over thousands of acres in St. Louis, Carleton and Itasca counties, in Minnesota, and Douglas county, Wisconsin, the many forest fires which have been raging in these regions were checked yesterday. If the wind does not spring up again it is not likely that further damage will result.

That Russia is again politically predominant in Turkey, supplanting Germany as the leading foreign influence in that country, has just been demonstrated by the indefinite postponement of startling work on the proposed Austrian Novi Bazaar Railroad Line. This road was designed to connect Austria's Bosni system with the Terminus of the Salonica road, in Turkish territory.

While bobbing for eels in the Delaware off Gloucester on Saturday John Wentz, of Philadelphia was drowned. Wentz and a friend were bobbing in a boat when the former got a giant eel on his line and in rising it to the surface, gave a great pull to land it, lost his balance and fell over the other side of the boat into the water.

Attorney William C. Boyd, representing H. N. Bane, a small creditor of Harry K. Thaw, asked Referee in Bankruptcy William L. Blair today that Thaw be taken to Pittsburg for an examination. Referee Blair ordered that Harry Thaw appear there next Friday, September 11. No claims were filed today. Roger O'Mara, formerly receiver for Thaw, today was appointed trustee and his bond of $100,000 was approved.

Forming a human ladder three policemen early today rescued 18 persons from a tenement house fire in New York. The officers found the fire escapes crowded with people who were terrified by the dense smoke rolling from the windows on the first floor. An officer climbed up through the smoke and one by one carried ten children to the first floor and dropped them into another's arms. Then he went back to the upper landing, rescued a woman and a man who had fainted and carried them to safety. He got back just in time to catch a woman who was jumping to the street. He had to overpower her before she could be carried down the ladder.

The greatest railroad strike ever seen in England is forecasted in the opening session in Nottingham today by the Trades Union Congress, at which delegates representing 1,750,000 English workmen are in attendance. The sentiment for a strike of all railroad employees in the United Kingdom is most pronounced. Better working conditions and increased pay are demanded by the railroad men.

LETTER TO JOHN A COGAN

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: When you use 15 gallons of somebody-else's paint to cover a house that 10 gallons Devoe is enough for, who gets the $25 extra money you pay for the job?

You don't see the extra $25?

It is 5 gallons paint at no matter what price per gallon; and $2 to $4 a day for painting those 5 superfluous gallons. That makes $25 about; it may be more, it may be less. A gallon put-on is about $5; 5 gallons $25.

The paint-manufacturer gets part of that extra money, the dealer gets some, and the painter gets some. You pay it. What do you get for it? Whitewash, whiting, china-clay, ground stone, barytes, benzine, and water, mixed with your paint. Don't blame the dealer and painter; they can't help it.

Yours truly,

F W DEVOE & Co.

Labor Day Parades.

New York, Sept. 7.—Forty thousand persons marched in the labor day parade today. The demonstration is declared by labor leaders to be the biggest that was ever held in New York. Crowds lined both sides of Fifth avenue down which the parade passed and cheered the marchers. The parade started at 59th street and was disbanded at Washington square. Arnold B. McStay, former president of the Central Federated Union, headed the marchers, who were reviewed by Kerr Hadd, English labor leader in parliament. The parade was in eight divisions including 46 organizations representing nearly every class of organized labor.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 7.—With William D. Haywood, of the Western Federation of Miners, as the principal speaker and a parade with 15,000 men in line Cleveland today had the greatest labor day in her history.

The address of Haywood will be the virtual opening of the socialistic campaign. He will deal more with the labor question during the speech, but as he interrupted his western tour to make this address, it is understood that the socialistic key note will be sounded. A feature of the celebration was the parade of work horses, for which valuable prizes had been offered by horse lovers. John D. Rockefeller was expected to offer a prize and review the parade but did not materialize.

A Successful Flight.

Paris, Sept. 7.—M. Leon Delagrange, the noted French aeronaut, sailed his aeroplane for 31 minutes today, breaking the world's record which he established yesterday, when he kept his machine in the air 29 minutes and 55 seconds. In today's flight Delagrange rounded the parade grounds at least 17 times, a distance of 16 miles. As in yesterday's flight, the aviator had his machine under perfect control and announced that he could have continued the flight, but did not care to subject the motor to too great a strain.

The feat of sailing an aeroplane an hour is now the goal sought by Delagrange and he said today that he expected to do so within the next month.

COMMISSION HOUSE ROBBED.

A first class crook leaves little trace of his rascality behind. Such was not the case with thief or thieves who entered the commission house of N. Lindsey & Co., at the corner of King and Union streets, Saturday night. During the heavy rain on Saturday night some one entered the alley on King street between Lee and Union and effected an entrance by means of a back window in the establishment. They left no stone unturned in their endeavor to reach every room in this large commission house. Boxes containing goods of every description were broken open and the contents which were not taken were scattered on the floor. A quantity of chewing tobacco is missing as were different other articles of merchandise. The thieves seemed to want to inspect everything in sight and the print of fingers was discovered on more than fifty bottles containing liquids. Only the lye which was in cans escaped their attention. Some one acquainted with the premises must be the thief and the ones who entered the building must either have been boys or a very small man, as they had to enter between bars in a window about 8 inches apart. A peculiar thing is that just before leaving the thieves took a box of loaded shells and broke the tops off them and carried away the shot and powder. The manager does not know the extent of the loss and it would take a complete inventory to establish it. The matter was called to the attention of the police department today.

LABOR DAY.

With the usual bustle of a national holiday Labor Day was ushered in this morning to find those who had ceased from toil getting ready to observe the occasion. Fishing lines, bait buckets, etc., were in evidence on every train or boat which left the city. "Shouting Bob" Price, a coal miner, was the originator of the holiday, and in a convention of the Knights of Labor offered the following: "I move you, Mr. Chairman, it be the unanimous decision of this convention, that hereafter one day of the year shall be set aside, and on that day labor shall not labor, but go forth and show that it is free and glorious in the right of its prowess." The motion was passed amid great cheering of the delegates, and when order was restored Chairman Powderly asked Mr. Price what name to give to the holiday, and the answer made on the instant was "Labor Day. Labor organizations throughout the various states began offering petitions to state legislatures to set aside one day in the year to be observed as a legal holiday and designated "Labor Day." The day has finally extended as a holiday throughout the United States, till at present it is observed not only by union labor, but by all labor, trades and professions generally. The banks and public offices of the city were closed today and many of the business houses closed at 12 o'clock.

OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT.

"The Girl From Missouri" is in a class by itself. Mizzoury, the heroine, is a delightful, breezy girl who hails from that celebrated state where you have "to show me" to convince. Her father, the sheriff, is the typical Missourian. He is very frank in his opinions and his speech is marked by many droll sayings. The play is wholly original in theme and novel in treatment. Unlike most dramas of the west, the shooting is conspicuous by its absence. Notwithstanding, the play bristles with stirring climaxes and the solution of the story is in suspense until the final curtain. No one who enjoys a fine, wholesome, refined play in which comedy and pathos blend, should miss seeing "The Girl From Missouri" at the Opera House tonight.

"The Girl From Missouri" company arrived in this city this morning, and carry with them a full stage setting for their performance and also electrical effects. The matinee this afternoon was well attended and enjoyed throughout. The specialities were also good.

WANDERED IN SWAMP.

Frederick Didszoneit, who lives on Cameron street, was found in a swamp about 15 miles below the city yesterday morning. He was discovered by John Magner who lives near Sideburn, Fairfax county, who took him to his home and furnished him clothing. When he was found in the swamp he was naked and wandering aimlessly among the weeds and other undergrowth. Didszoneit said he could not secure employment in this city and he took a freight train and was going south. He was made to jump from the train near the place where found and he proceeded to disrobe in order to preserve his clothing from the mud and water. Didszoneit was brought to this city and turned over to the police. Today a commission was held upon the unfortunate young man and he was adjudged of unsound mind. He will be sent to the hospital.

PRESENTED WITH BABY.

Looking tired and fatigued with the appearance of having traveled a long distance a young woman not over 25 years of age stopped at the residence of Mrs. William Wade, at the corner of Columbus and Wolfe streets, Saturday, and asked Mrs. Wade if she would take care of a child she had in her arms until she could go and return from the Union station. She gave her name as Mary Brown and informed Mrs. Wade she had left a valise at the depot and that she could not carry it with her child. Noticing that the woman appeared nervous and restless, perhaps due from walking in from the station and carrying the baby, Mrs. Wade agreed to grant her request. Some time after the woman had gone a little colored boy appeared at Mrs. Wade's door with a valise and on opening it Mrs. Wade found it to contain the baby's clothes. The woman not returning Mrs. Wade sent for an officer and informed him of the circumstances and Officer Gill started out in search of the woman. The woman in question tried to get her burden unloaded on a few families in the second ward but they concluded that they had plenty of that kind of furniture. It is not known whether the Brown woman left the city on the steam or electric road. Mrs. Wade will take care of the little one until it can be disposed of.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Robert Williams, colored, suspected of stealing $51 from George Constantinople, was dismissed.

A young white man, charged with lunacy, was held.

Aldridge Williamson, colored, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Norval Taylor, colored, charged with entering the house of Frank F. Dudley, was sent to jail for 90 days.

J. D. Overton, charged with being drunk in the street, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

Clarence Ford, colored, suspected of running away from a school in Richmond, was held.

RETURNED FROM TRIP.

Among those who accompanied Capt. George Nugent and his Alexandria friends on the Labor Day trip to the White House were Messrs. W. Hammer and C. Schaffer, of Maryland, and Messrs. A. Kibble and C. Garcia, of Washington, D. C. A peculiar contrivance used in fishing has been invented by Mr. Schaffer, of Halethorpe, Md. It is a large electric globe which is filled with minnows. The party reports that this device was placed down in the water while on this trip, and attracted perch and rock to it to such an extent that the fishermen caught them in large numbers.

TRIED TO STEAL HOG AND COW.

Saturday night was not a very good time for walking on south Washington street, which is generally designated as "Lovers' Lane," but notwithstanding the downpour of rain thieves were operating and tried to steal a hog and cow from the residence of Mr. Moore who lives on that street. If the cow had not had a bell to its neck the robbers would have been successful. The ringing of the bell as the cow was being taken from the yard scared the thieves and awoke the owners, who had quite a time getting the hog and cow back in the stable.

DEATH OF MISS WOOD.

Miss Mollie E. Wood, who lived at the residence of Mrs. M. A. Wood on south Washington street, died Saturday evening, after a lingering illness. Miss Wood was a native of Richmond and was the daughter of the late James Wood, of this city. Miss Wood had resided in this city since early girlhood. Her funeral took place this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Miss Wood was a relative of Mr. Thos. White, of this city, and the late Robert L. Wood. She was an active member of the Presbyterian Church. The services were conducted by Rev. J. R. Sevier, of the Second Presbyterian Church, and Rev. C. D. Bulla, of the M. E. Church South. The pallbearers were Messrs. Chas. C. Smoot, Hance White, Robert W. Wheat, P. J. Dempsey, David Grillborizer, of this city, and Madeo Thomas, of Washington.

FOUND DEAD BABY.

The body of a dead infant was found in the stable on the old Linton place, by members of the family who live there this morning. The farm is located near Riverside, Fairfax county. Dr. Caton was summoned and he reported that the infant had been dead some time. Justice Wright, of Fairfax, then summoned a jury and held an inquest over the body.

NEGRO INTRUDER.

Some excitement was caused on upper King street late last Saturday night by a negro named Norval Taylor, who entered the house of Mr. Frank F. Dudley. He was taken in charge by the male members of the family and turned over to Officers Arrington and Talbot. Taylor was brought before the Police Court this morning when he was sent to jail for 90 days.

CAMP MEETING.

The summer camp meeting of the Methodists of Washington and Baltimore opened near Great Falls yesterday. Over 2,000 people visited the camp the first day. It will hold till Thursday night of this week. Rev. E. V. Regester, of this city, and George W. Gaither, of Sterling, Va., are the managers of the camp meeting.

EXCURSION.

Today is the occasion of the annual excursion of District Assembly, No. 66, K. of L. It will take place at Marshall Hall on the steamer Macalester. The boat will leave Alexandria wharf at 7 p.m. Quite a number went down on the morning and afternoon boats.

The Hess Oxfords, "the finest", reduced. $4.00, $5.00 and $6.00 grades go at $3.90. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

DANGEROUS DELAYS

A few minutes lost sometimes means a fortune gone. Unreliable watches often cause loss of life and property, broken engagements, missed trains and other troubles. The watches we offer are made according to scientific principles of the best material to be had, and often run for years with little attention. They will not "throw you down" at a critical time. You won't have watch troubles if you will let us help you make a selection.

DEMOCRATS ORGANIZE.

Notwithstanding the downpour of rain on Saturday night a few of the faithful met at Sarepta Hall and proceeded to organize a Bryan, Kern and Carlin Club for active work during the presidential campaign. Mr. S. G. Brent was chosen president, and Mr. J. M. Hill treasurer. After remarks by several members the club proceeded to elect vice presidents and Col. F. L. Smith was selected to represent the First ward; Thomas A. Fisher, Second; James R. Caton, Third, and Capt. W. H. Sweeney, Fourth. The officers were instructed to secure headquarters and the general opinion among the members was that the officers should select a committee of three from each ward as an executive force and two additional members from each ward to solicit campaign funds. Rules will be adopted governing the membership and a banner will be displayed in front of the headquarters, when secured. After a motion had been adopted that the club meet at the call of the president the mass meeting dissolved.

OYSTER SEASON.

As will be seen by the advertisments of Rammel's Hotel, Zimmerman's Cafe and the Elkton the oyster season is in full blast and this delightful bivalve will bring joy to the palates of those able to indulge. As to preparing them in a tempting manner either of these houses can furnish them as up-to-date as any hotel in the country. Fried, steamed, stewed, raw, in fact, anyway to tempt the most fastidious. Quick service and polite waiters at your command.

COUNTY SCHOOLS.

Mr. James E. Clements, superintendent of schools of Alexandria county, has called a meeting of the school board and the teachers of that county for Thursday next, when the school books will be selected. The schools of the county will open on the 21st.

MONEY STOLEN.

Late Saturday afternoon Mr. James Constantinople reported to the police the loss from under his counter in his fruit store on King street near Royal a bag containing $51. He had his suspicions about a negro boy named Williams and he swore out a warrant for his arrest. The negro denied his guilt when arrested by Officer Ferguson on Saturday. This morning he was brought before Justice Caton in the Police Court and dismissed.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

St. Mary's Academy will reopen tomorrow.

The excursion season practically closes today.

Mr. Luther Carter, real estate agent, has sold to Mr. J. H. Matthews, the house No. 512 Pendleton street.

R. E. Lee Camp Confederate Veterans, will hold a monthly meeting at Lee Camp Hall at 8 o'clock to night.

Rev. Berryman Green, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, conducted services at Christ Protestant Church yesterday. Services at the other churches were conducted by the resident clergy.

The government tug Lieut. Alonzo Cushing is again in service. The tug was launched from the marine railway here on Friday afternoon after having been fitted with a new wheel and being otherwise repaired.

Barbara Pope, a negress of Washington 50 years old, committed suicide by hanging sometime Saturday night. Her body was found hanging to the limb of a tree in "Lovers lane," Massachusetts avenue northwest extended, yesterday morning by police of the seventh precinct.

The police authorities received a telegram yesterday noon asking after them to look out for two boys who had escaped from their home at Rapidan and were on their way south. Before the telegram was received here the train on which they were passengers had passed.

The tug William H. Yerkes, jr., belonging to A. J. Taylor & Bro., of Washington, which Thursday struck a wreck off Point Lookout and sank, has been raised and brought up to Alexandria to be hauled out on the marine railway here for repairs.

The heavy rain Saturday night caused about fifteen feet of earth around the sewer at Washington and Gibbon streets to cave in. The cave-in occurred adjoining the trap and catch basin just constructed, and a portion of the new sewer, which has not yet been used, became clogged.

Joseph Cario is the name of the man who jumped from the Aqueduct bridge and was drowned early Friday morning. The body was identified Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Ida Cooksy, of Washington, with whom the man boarded since July 25. It also developed that the man committed suicide because he was disappointed in love.

Facing complications that may injure his chances for recovery, Rodney Rose, who was bitten on the middle finger of his his left by a diamond rattler about two weeks ago, at the Washington Zoological garden has consented to have the injured member amputated. Dr. William S. Carr, who thus far has succeeded in pulling the patient through believes that unless the finger is amputated blood poison will result.

PETTEY ELECTRICAL INDICATOR SIGNAL.

The following letter has been received by Mr. Zoro Hill, secretary and treasurer of the Pettey Electrical Indicator Signal Company, from Mr. R. W. King, general manager of the W. A. & Mt. Vernon Railway Company, which speaks for itself:

Mr. ZORO HILL, Secretary and Treasurer.

Dear Sir: In answer to your favor of the 6th instant, beg to state that I think your electrical indicator signals are a good thing for any electric railway to have at dangerous road crossings, as they not only give a bell alarm but also a sight alarm. A driver would have to be deaf, dumb and blind who would drive across tracks with your signal working.

Very respectfully yours,
R. W. KING,
General Manager.

PERSONAL.

SCHOOL PERMITS.

The Clerk of the City School Board began this morning at Armory Hall issuing permits to pupils to attend the public schools and during the day issued 573 permits, 295 to white boys and 278 to white girls. On the corresponding day last year 620 such permits were issued, 271 to white boys and 349 to white girls. Permits will be issued again tomorrow and on Wednesday to white pupils and on Thursday and Friday to colored pupils. Better order was preserved during the issuing of permits today than for several years past.

A Long Dance.

The longest dance on record is probably that of William Kemp, an actor of some celebrity in the reign of Queen Elizabeth. He was a comedian and danced all the way from London to Norwich.

He was attended by a taborer, a servant and an overseer, and it was doubtless a good thing for him that there were no omnibuses or police then, for they would probably have imposed more impediments in the way of his progress than did the country people.

He started with several presents of groats and crooked sixpences for luck, and, laden with these, he danced to Stratford with out rest.

Subsequently he went in for early rising to avoid market people, and, though suffering from a sprain of the hip which he received, he danced it well again, to the delight of the crowd which accompanied him, some 200 in number.

When he reached Norwich he had to dance in and out of the city twice, for his overseer missed him in the crowd and made him do the distance over again to avoid any possibility of error.—London Graphic.

Live Mule, Dead Boar.

An odd hunting adventure recently befell a British officer in India. He was mounted on a fleet mule and was running down a wild boar, intending to lance it, when the animal turned, bit the mule's leg and then fled again. The mule screamed savagely, and in a minute she had deposited the officer on the ground. Then, kicking out vigorously five or six times, as if to see that her legs were all right, she started after the unfortunate pig at lightning speed, with fury in her eyes and vengeance in the crook of her ears. The race was not long, and the wild boar soon realized that he had exasperated a relentless enemy. He was soon winded, and the mule, coming up with him, caught him by the backbone with her teeth, crunched it and threw him to the ground and then, before he could rise, kicked him so viciously that he was a dead boar in less than no time. Then the mule returned to her master and gave utterance to a "heehaw" of triumph.

Between Supper and Breakfast.

Many persons, says a well known doctor, though not actually sick, keep below par in strength and general tone, and he is of the opinion that fasting during the long interval between supper and breakfast, and especially the complete emptiness of the stomach during sleep, adds greatly to the amount of emaciation, sleeplessness and general weakness we so often meet. It is logical to believe that the supply of nourishment should be somewhat continuous, especially in those who are below par, if we would counteract their emaciation and lower degree of vitality, and as bodily exercise is suspended during sleep, with wear and tear correspondingly diminished, while digestion, assimilation and nutritive activity continue as usual, the food furnished during this period adds more than is destroyed, and increased weight and improved general vigor are the results.—London Globe.

A Theater Dialogue.

The curtain had fallen on the first act at a Broadway theater when a man, correctly attired and apparently of refinement, leaned toward a woman occupying a seat directly in front of him—a woman who had naturally removed her hat, but whose hair was arranged in the extreme of fashion, aided by "boughten" puffs.

"I beg your pardon, madam," said the man in an audible whisper, "but if you would remove your hair and substitute your hat I believe I would be able to see something more of the stage."

The woman didn't scream. She didn't even faint. She merely turned around and replied:

"Jack, if you weren't my brother I'd slap your face."—New York Globe.

Her Little Confidence Game.

"We're playing railroad train," she said as she pulled her father's paper away, "and I'm the conductor. Tickets, please."

He took a card from his pocket and handed it to her. She looked at it intently for a minute and then handed it back. "That was issued yesterday," she said, "and isn't good today. You'll have to pay cash or get off the train."

He gave her a dime. He knew he had been "worked," but what else could he do?

Pitched It.

A boy was asked what Moses did with the tabernacle in the wilderness when the people murmured.

He replied, "He chucked it away."

When asked to explain he read the seventh verse of the thirty-third chapter of Exodus, "And Moses took the tabernacle and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp."—Liverpool Mercury.

Night Rates For a Horse.

"Hicks, the hotel man, has a new scheme. He serves Welsh rabbit free to his guests evenings."

"What's his idea?"

"Well, they have nightmare, and then he charges them for the use of one horse."—Boston Transcript.

Conceit.

Conceit is that attitude of the mind which convinces a man that if he had only lived soon enough he would have been the author of the Bible.—Detroit Free Press.

I have but one lamp by which my feet are guided, and that is the lamp of experience. I know no way of judging of the future but by the past. —Patrick Henry.

Straight From the Animal.

A London gentleman, having taken a small farm in the country as being the correct thing to do, as well as to get a little fresh air, had invited some of his friends down to see his new possession.

Having viewed the domain and noting the absence of creature life about the place, one of his friends remarked:

"With a nice, open place like this, I wonder you don't have some animals about, as is usual on a farm. Some cows, for instance, so as to have your own butter and cream."

"No-o," drawled his host, "don't care about butter or cream."

"Some chickens or ducks, then. You surely like fresh eggs?"

"No-o, don't care for eggs. But I've sometimes thought I'd like a sheep. I rather like kidneys for breakfast."—Liverpool Mercury.

The Palisades.

To see New York city from the Palisades is to witness the multiple beauty and wonder of the Palisades themselves. One of the most astonishing facts concerning these towering masses of grandeur is that they lie so close to the most artificial, man subjugated area that civilization has evolved, writes Philip Verrill Mighels in Harper's Magazine. To come upon the Palisades from the rear, at night is like stepping to the edge of the world, where the slender, dark island lies low beyond as if it were only a part of space, its countless lights looking like millions of stars stretched for miles across the sky. The illusion is dispelled when the wind flows up with the tide to the base of the cliffs and lifts up the full throated roar of the substantial city.

Approaching It Gradually.

An old farmer, on paying his rent, told his landlord he wanted some timber to build a house and would be much obliged to him if he would give permission to cut down wood for the purpose.

The landlord answered peremptorily. "No."

"Why, then, sir," said he, "will you give me enough to build a barn?"

"No."

"To make a gate, then?"

"Yes."

"That's all I wanted," said the farmer, "and more than I expected."—Pearson's Weekly.

Complimentary to Him.

"Really," said Cholly Sappey, "I cawn't understand Miss Rood at all. She actually called me a crank."

"The idea!" exclaimed Miss Cutting. "How flattering!"

"Flattering?"

"Yes; a crank, you know, is a man with one idea."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Delays Are Dangerous.

"This milk is sour, and I won't take it," declared the lady.

"That's your own fault, ma'am," retorted the dealer. "I offered it to you day before yesterday when it was fresh, and you wouldn't take it."—Cleveland Leader.

A Happy Medium.

Uncle inquired of little Bobby if he had been a good boy. Bobby—No, I haven't. Uncle—Why, I hope you haven't been very bad. Bobby—Oh, no; just comfortable.—Delaware County Democrat.

Habit of the Postman.

Why is it that the postman never stops at your house when you are expecting a check and always does when you are expecting a bill?—Columbus (O.) Journal.
